Licensing Act 2003

Objection to the application to transfer the Premise License for Whispers, 12A
Regent Street, Barnsley

On behalf of the Chief Constable of South Yorkshire, an objection is being made in relation to the above applications.

The grounds of our objection to the Transfer are based on the prevention of Crime and Disorder & Public Safety

Historically the premise has caused a number of serious issues resulting in stringent conditions being placed on the premise licence and finally leading to revocation of the licence in 2017. Following an appeal by the premise licence holder, discussions were held which resulted in the Council dropping the objection to the appeal, with the proviso that the conditions attached to any transfer was upheld. The transfer didn't happen to the named person, we have now received another transfer to a different applicant, at this time no information is known or been supplied regarding this person, or any confirmation that the conditions agreed at the appeal hearing will be adhered to.

Without the opportunity to meet and discuss further conditions we feel obliged to object to the transfer under the crime and disorder objective.

Yours faithfully,

For and on behalf of

Chief Constable, South Yorkshire Police

Regards

Thanks

If the victim says it's a crime, crime it.

In March 2016, South Yorkshire Police requested a review of the premise licence at Whispers (which was formally known as Hotspot). This was due to serious concerns regarding Protection of Children From Harm and Prevention of Crime and Disorder under the four licensing objectives. There was a number of incidents over a three-month period and scheduled underage events that caused major concerns to both South Yorkshire Police and BMBC, which resulted in an action plan being completed with the venue in November 2015. Following the implementation of the action plan there was a number of breaches, which resulted South Yorkshire Police requesting a review of the premise licence in March 2016. The review hearing took place in July 2016, where members of the licensing board imposed conditions on the licence.

In January 2017, a second review of the licence was requested by South Yorkshire Police following serious concerns about the management of the venue despite their being a change of DPS during this time. Over a three-month period, the licence had been breached five times as a result of management failing to notify SYP and BMBC of the required information for forthcoming events. Over a four-week period there was also four incidents of crime and disorder including an attempted murder at the venue. Following the attempted murder, major concerns were further highlighted about management, staff and security; therefore, due to lack of confidence in the management of the venue, South Yorkshire Police requested a review of the licence.

At the review hearing that was heard in March 2017, members of the licensing panel revoked the premise licence of Whispers.

Following the revocation, the Premise Licence Holder Chris Palmer appealed the decision that resulted in a consent order being agreed and put in place, with various conditions apposed and agreed by all relevant parties. However, the conclusion to this was that the proposed transfer and lease to Mr Potter did not proceed. Due to the time that had then lapsed the appeal could not continue.

On the 23.10.2017, an objection was made by South Yorkshire Police following an application received to transfer the licence over to a David Michael Elphick. In addition to their being no reference to the conditions that were previously agreed as part of the consent order, there was no information disclosed regarding the proposed Premise Licence Holder and no further reassurances given by either party connected to the venue. South Yorkshire Police, still have serious concerns regards the management of this venue and ultimately who will remain in overall control.
