Please provide as much information as possible to support the application (please read guidance note 2)

Evidence to support this application centres around the protection of children from harm and the prevention of crime and disorder. Recent history will show that:

On the 8th January 2022 at 23:24, South Yorkshire Police received a complaint alleging that there was a number of underage people in the venue. (SYP Incident 0968 08.01.2022).

Police officers visited Sugar Club following the complaint and conducted a licensing check. Upon entering a number of patrons left. Four patrons were confronted who all admitted to being 15 and 16, stating that they had visited Sugar Club as they knew no one was challenging for ID. Officers spoke with several other people inside Sugar Club who appeared to be under 18 and were unable to produce any ID. Footage from body worn cameras will be disclosed at a later date.

On the 27th January 2022, Mr Stockton was served with an action plan following the incident on the 8th January where underage persons were found drinking in the venue and a subsequent review of the policies and procedures at the venue on the 20th January 2022.

On Friday 4th March 2022, as part of 'Street Safe' which is the operation name given to policing of the night-time economy, patrols officers attended the Sugar Club at 23:00. PC Pollard was amongst officers who approached the venue on foot and witnessed the security guard on the door go into the premise briefly and a number of individuals exit that appeared to be possibly under age. Unfortunately, officers were unable to obtain details of these individuals.

On entry into the club, PC Pollard noted that there was approximately 30 people inside with no one appearing obviously underage. After leaving the premise officers returned to their van and observed a male that had left on officers initial approach attempt to re-enter the club stating he had left his hat. When challenged by officers he did not have any ID on him and security refused entry this time.

On the 19th March 2022, temporary Police Sargent Botham whilst conducting duties as part of 'Street Safe' spoke with a female on Pitt Street. The female was underage, and although she was not seen going in or coming out of premise, stated that she had been in the Sugar Club.

On the 25th March 2022, police officers attended and conducted a licensing visit and observed underage youths drinking within the premises who confirmed that they have been sold alcohol.

Sugar Club opened in December 2021 and between the 31.01.2022 and the 05.04.2022 several intelligence reports were received by South Yorkshire Police detailing how underage people had been frequenting the venue.

On 9th April 2022, South Yorkshire Police carried out a targeted operation on Sugar Club. Safeguarding issues were highlighted as part of the operation with the club allowing entry and serving alcohol to underage children. Several underage children admitted to drinking alcohol, one identified as being vulnerable and at risk of child exploitation.

On the 13th April 2022, South Yorkshire Police received a late report of a serious assault that occurred at the venue on the 4th March 2022, 14/71225/22. This incident involved a male who was punched in his eye causing trauma and requiring medical treatment at Barnsley Hospital and Royal Hallamshire hospital in Sheffield. At this time this is still an on-going investigation.

On the 14th April 2022, South Yorkshire Police received a homophobic complaint that occurred in the venue, 14/71073/22.

On the 20th April 2022, Licensing visit carried out with BMBC & South Yorkshire Police Licensing Officers at the venue. Visit highlighted that CCTV only recorded until 04:00 when the venue is open until 05:30. No refusal logs had been recorded since the 02.04.2022, incident logs were missing and ones that were present were completely incorrectly with very little detail and the Premise licence was not displayed.

Further information, statements and body worn footage will be submitted at a later date.
