

BARNSLEY METROPOLITAN BOROUGH COUNCIL

MEMBERS' ALLOWANCES SCHEME

2020/2021

Notes: -

This part contains the current Members' Allowances Scheme that sets out what the Council pays to councillors and co-opted members by way of basic and special responsibility allowances, attendance allowances (appeals), carers' allowances, travelling allowances, travelling and subsistence expenditure.

The Scheme was approved by Barnsley Council and came into force on 1st April 2020.

The Council must have regard to a report from its Independent Remuneration Panel before making or amending a scheme.

Details of payments made are published annually. Payments and claim forms are open to public inspection during the Authority accounts inspection period.

The Barnsley Metropolitan Council Members' Allowances Scheme 2020

The Council of the Borough of Barnsley HEREBY MAKES this scheme under The Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003 (as amended) and all other powers enabling the Borough Council in this behalf.

Introduction

This scheme may be cited as The Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council Members' Allowances Scheme 2020 ("this Scheme"), and shall Commence on the 1st April 2020 and shall continue in force thereafter until revoked or amended.

This scheme can be adjusted with reference to a formula linked to agreed National pay increase for Officers without further reference to the Independent Remuneration Panel.

The previous Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council Members' Allowances Scheme which took effect from 1st April 2019 is revoked with effect from 1st April 2020.

In this Scheme:

"the Authority" means Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council

"Councillor" means an elected member of the Authority

"Co-optee" means a person who is not a councillor but who is co-opted to serve as a member of a Committee of the Authority

"the Regulations" means The Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003 (as amended) by The Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2003

"Year" means any period of 12 months ending 31 March in any year.

Basic Allowance

Each year a Basic Allowance set out in Schedule 1 shall be paid to each Councillor.

Where the term of office of a Councillor begins or ends otherwise than at the beginning or end of a year, the entitlement of that Councillor will be entitled to such part of the Basic Allowance as is proportionate to the number of days served by that Councillor in that year as is proportionate to the total number of days in that year.

Where payment of any allowance has already been made in respect of any period during which a Councillor ceases to be a Councillor, in anyway not entitled to receive the allowance in respect of that period the Authority may require repayment of the allowance.

A Councillor may, by notice of writing given to Members' Services, elect to forgo all or any part of his or her allowance under this scheme.

The Scheme may be amended at any time.

Special Responsibility Allowance

Each year a Special Responsibility Allowance shall be paid to those Councillors who have the special responsibilities in relation to the Authority that are specified in Schedule 2.

The amount of each Special Responsibility Allowance shall be the amount specified against that special responsibility in Schedule 2.

Where a Councillor does not have throughout the whole year any such special responsibilities as entitle them to a Special Responsibility Allowance, his or her entitlement to such part of the Special Responsibility Allowance as is proportionate to the number of days served by that Councillor in that year as is proportionate to the total number of days in that year.

Any Councillor who holds more than one Special Responsibility position shall be entitled to receive the higher allowance listed in Schedule 2. Councillors may not receive an allowance for more than one position.

Where payment of any allowance has already been made in respect of any period during which a Councillor ceases to be a Councillor, in anyway not entitled to receive the allowance in respect of that period the Authority may require repayment of the allowance.

A Councillor may, by notice of writing given to Members' Services, elect to forgo all or any part of his or her allowance under this Scheme.

The Scheme may be amended at any time.

Travel Allowance

Each year a Travel Allowance shall be paid to each Councillor in respect of travel undertaken in connection with or relating approved duties.

The amount of Travel Allowance paid shall be calculated based on the mileage between the Town Hall postcode and the Councillor's home postcode, using an on-line route finder. The amount paid will be the distance for the shortest route and will relate to specific bands of mileage travelled.

Where the term of office of a Councillor begins or ends otherwise than at the beginning or end of a year, the entitlement of that Councillor will be entitled to such part of the Travel Allowance, as is proportionate to the number of days served by that Councillor in that year as is proportionate to the total number of days in that year.

A Councillor may, by notice of writing given to Members' Services, elect to forgo all or any part of his or her allowance under this Scheme.

The Scheme may be amended at any time.

Travel and Subsistence Expenditure (Outside the Borough)

Councillors are able to claim incurred expenditure in respect of travel undertaken in connection with or relating approved duties, outside the Borough, Councillors can also submit a prior written approval form to Members Services to enable them to take their car and claim the lesser of the mileage or 2nd class return fare as specified in Schedule 5

Councillors are able to claim incurred expenditure in respect of subsistence undertaken in connection with or relating approved duties, outside the Borough as specified in Schedule 7

Appeals, Awards and Standards Regulatory Board

The remit of the Appeals, Awards and Standards Regulatory Board was expanded in July 2012 to include the consideration of ethical standards issues arising out of the new code of conduct for Elected Members.

Members of the Appeals, Awards and Standards Regulatory Board will be paid an Attendance Allowance (£42 per half day (up to 4 hours) / £84 per full day (over 4 hours)) at panel meetings that consider staffing appeals, which should be deemed as 'approved duty'.

Attendance Allowance is not payable in respect of meetings of panels to consider any other matter within the remit of the Board.

Section 28 of the Localism Act 2011, under which the ethical standards arrangements were established, requires the appointment of an 'Independent Person' whose views will be sought on any allegation that a Member has breached the code of conduct.

Dependants' Carers' Allowance

An allowance will be paid to each Councillor who is the main carer and needs to incur the expenses of arranging for the care of their children or dependants while undertaking approved duties.

The Dependants' carers' allowance will be payable in respect of actual expenditure up to the amount specified by Barnsley Social Services rates (these will be verified once the application has been submitted) and is subject to observing the protocol on the claims procedure and eligibility criteria.

Note Claims may only be made where a Care Agency, Registered Child Minder or Nursery has been employed. Claims may not be made where caring duties have been performed by a member of the immediate family. Members cannot claim for multiple carers for multiple dependants within the same category of care.

Amendments and Repayments of Part of Allowances

This Scheme may be amended at any time.

Where an amendment is to be made which affects an allowance payable for the year in which the amendment is made, the entitlement to such allowance as amended may apply with effect from the beginning of the year in which the amendment is made.

Where payment of any allowance has already been made in respect of any period during which the Councillor concerned is:

- a) Ceases to be a Councillor;
- b) Is in any way not entitled to receive the allowance in respect of that period;

The Authority may require that such part of the allowance as relates to any such period be repaid to the Authority.

Election to forgo allowances

A Councillor may, by notice in writing elect to forgo all or any part of his or her entitlement to any allowance under the Scheme.

Claims and Payments

Payments of Basic, Special Responsibility and Travel allowances shall be made in instalments of one twelfth of the amount specified in this scheme on the last Friday of each month. Members will be informed of any exceptions to the payment date.

A claim for the following allowances must be made by the person to whom they are payable within two months from the date on which an entitlement to the relevant allowance arises:

- Dependants' carers' allowance.
- Travelling and subsistence expenditure (Outside the Borough).

Audit Committee

Each year a Special Responsibility Allowance shall be paid to the co-opted members of the Audit Committee who have the special responsibility in relation to the Authority that are specified in Schedule 2.

The amount of Special Responsibility Allowance shall be the amount specified against that special responsibility in Schedule 2.

Where a co-opted member of the Audit Committee does not have throughout the whole year any such special responsibility as entitle them to a Special Responsibility Allowance, he or she will be entitled to such part of the Special Responsibility Allowance as is proportionate to the number of days served by them in that year as is proportionate to the total number of days in that year.

Where payment of any allowance has already been made to a co-opted member of the Audit Committee in respect of any period during which he or she ceases to be a co-opted member, in anyway not entitled to receive the allowance in respect of that period the Authority may require repayment of the allowance.

A co-opted member of the Audit Committee may, by notice of writing given to Members Services elect to forgo all or any part of his or her allowance under this scheme.

The scheme may be amended at any time.
