For the Attention of the Designated Premises Supervisor

Dear Sir/Madam,

SOUTH YORKSHIRE POLICE
LICENSING ACT 2003 AS AMENDED

I am writing to confirm that on 31/10/2019, a South Yorkshire Police operation relating to the sale of Alcohol to persons under the age of 18 years, took place in your area.

During the operation in question, your premises were one of those visited by officers in conjunction with young persons under the age of 18 years. During the visit, the young persons attempted to purchase alcohol from yourself and/or a member of your staff. I am pleased to report that on this occasion the sale was refused.

Further, I would like to congratulate both yourself and your staff in maintaining such high standards of diligence, following procedures, and as a result ensuring your compliance with the legislation.

In order to maintain and enhance safer communities for the future South Yorkshire Police are committed to continuing underage test purchasing exercises at strategic intervals. These may include further test purchase attempts from your business, primarily in order to confirm continued adherence to procedures, but also to highlight any unforeseen causes of concern that might arise and suggest any best practice guidance to alleviate any apparent potential risk.

If you should require any further information, advice or assistance with this matter, please do not hesitate to contact either myself or John Kirkham on 01226 736046.

Yours sincerely,

Kirsty Green
Licensing Officer
