Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

There will be full supervision and training to all staff. Various policies and procedures will be in place in order to comply with the four licensing objectives noted below

A Personal Licence holder will be at the premises at all times when alcohol is being sold or at busy times.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

The whole premises will be covered by internal and external CCTV. The system is on a 24 hour recording and recordings will be stored for 30 days. Police and Council authorities will be given access if required to ensure any incidents can be investigated.

There will be security lighting throughout the building inside and out to help prevent crime and disorder.

We will operate a Challenge 25 policy to prevent the sale of alcohol to under 18's – all staff will be fully trained to request proof of age before alcohol is sold and signage will be displayed at the counter.

Litter bins to be provided to the outside.

Any incidents regarding refusal of alcohol or other incidents will be recorded in an incident book for Police and Council authorities and will be kept on site for a period of 12 months.

c) Public safety

Fire alarm system will be fitted with audible and visible warning sounders/strobes.

Fire safety, training and evacuation procedures will be given to all staff.

As noted above – full CCTV system in place, and available to local authorities if needed.

Testing and certification of all appliances will be conducted in line with the rules and regulations.

The premises will be maintained in good, clean and tidy condition at all times both internally and externally. The premises will have suitable Public Liability Insurance and a certificate will be obtained each year and displayed at the premises.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

CCTV system in place as noted above.

Effective and responsible management will be on the premises providing appropriate instructions, training and supervision of those employed or engaged to prevent incidents of public nuisance e.g. to ensure customers leave quietly.

Effective ventilation system in place.

Taking a proactive and risk-based approach to avoid public nuisance.

The main door will be kept closed at all times.

15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
